

WAR WILL CAUSE NEW CIVILIZATION, MINISTERS DECLARE

"The world will never be the same after the war," said the Rev. Earle Wilsey, in his baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of the Washington College of Law at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church last night. "The millions of soldiers who go into the vortex of this hell will not be the same as they were before. They will demand of society something different. A new order of things and a new civilization are coming."

Dr. Charles F. Aked, one of the leaders on the Ford peace ship, at the First Congregational Church, spoke on "Paul at the Indian's Grave—Picturing Truer Than Facts." "Love is the keynote of success," he said. "Without it no one can be victorious and with that love must be coupled divine faith."

Services were held at the North Capitol Methodist Episcopal Church last night, at which a service flag containing sixteen stars was dedicated. The invocation was delivered by J. A. Bollenweber, of the Y. M. C. A., and the flag was presented by C. E. Crews, who spoke for the Ladies Aid Society. Congressman Parker told of his experiences at the battle-front.

The feast of Corpus Christi was observed yesterday at St. Aloysius Church with solemn high mass and a procession. The Rev. Paul R. Conner was celebrant, with the Rev. George A. Kelley deacon and the Rev. Francis E. Low subdeacon.

The 128 young men who have entered the service from St. Stephen's Catholic Church were honored yesterday afternoon by the raising of a St. Holy Name Society benediction, been attending classes at the Sunday school.

One hundred children who have been attending classes at the Sunday school of the Council of Jewish Women yesterday received diplomas for their completion of the course of study at Alliance House, Four-and-a-half and H streets southwest. Rachel Zamansky delivered the graduation address.

AUSTRIANS MASS TROOPS FOR DRIVE AGAINST ITALIANS

ROME, June 3.—The Austro-Hungarians are again massing reinforcements along the whole Italian front, according to information received here today. Aerial observers have reported troop movements taking place at night behind the Austro-Hungarian lines.

The internal situation in Austria has become so chaotic that a defeat of the Austro-Hungarian armies would probably result in a debacle, say travelers.

The Ideal Nazionale asserts that the Austrians lost 3,000 men in their recent attacks in the Monte Tonale sector of the Trentino front.

GENEVA, June 3.—Swiss troops on the eastern frontier report a "constantly increasing movement of Austrian infantry and artillery from Bozen and Trent southward toward the Italian front."

At St. Elvise pass, where the Austrian, Italian, and Swiss frontiers meet, the Austrian garrison has been greatly strengthened.

Emperor Karl is going to the Italian front this week, according to a dispatch from Vienna.

TOO MUCH JOY MAKES GREENCASTLE NERVOUS

HAGERSTOWN, Md., June 3.—Owing to the result of the invasion by consumers of intoxicants from Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia across the Mason and Dixon line into the adjoining counties in Pennsylvania, which are still "wet," residents of Greencastle, one of the booze points nearest to the line, have appealed to Judge Gilliam for members of the State constabulary to be sent to Greencastle to maintain order and to patrol the two highways leading from Hagerstown, claiming that joyriders are making travel on the roads very dangerous.

GERMAN ORPHAN ASYLUM'S NAME WILL BE CHANGED

The German Orphan Asylum, on Good Hope road, in Anacostia, today lost its name of forty-three years. Henceforth the institution will be known as the Good Hope Orphan's Home, although officially it will retain its former name. Under an act of Congress, establishing the home in 1875, the name can not be changed except by a change in the law. But to the public the name German Orphan Asylum is no more.

Oscar W. Friel, superintendent of the home, said today that the managers had decided to bar the German name forever in reference to public utterances about the asylum.

Mr. Friel said the home was by no means a German institution, because many Americans have placed children there. At present forty-two children are in the asylum.

The home was founded by the Concordia Church after Congress had passed a law granting it charter privileges. It is supported by contributions from private sources.

URGED TO FEED SIBERIA.

LONDON, June 3.—The suggestion that the allies should supply the Siberians with food and clothing and thus earn their gratitude, is made by Bernard Falke, special correspondent of the Daily Mail. Mr. Falke expresses the belief that this course would meet with the approval of the Americans.

WILL EXHIBIT TROPHIES TAKEN BY AMERICANS

The first trophies of war captured by the American overseas forces in raids on German positions have arrived in Washington and will be on exhibition this afternoon and the rest of the week in the lobby and in front of Poll's Theater in conjunction with the showing of the war film, "Perishing of the Crusaders," an official Government war picture.

Twenty-five Cases of Trophies. Arriving at an American seaport a week ago, the Americas loot, consisting of twenty-five cases of miscellaneous trophies, was sent to Fort Myer and yesterday brought to Washington in charge of the committee on exhibitions of the Committee on Public Information. Washington was considered the select city for the exhibit by the committee. After being shown here, the trophies will be taken to San Francisco and used as a part of the allied war exhibition to be opened there about July 1.

While the American forces in France have captured German machines and instruments of warfare by the carload, the exhibit here will be the first of their "loot" brought to the United States.

The trophies consist of five trench mortars, six machine guns, three catapults, several cases of hand grenades of different types, a great quantity of unused ammunition, empty gun shells of all sizes, steel helmets and breastplates worn by the German soldiers when in the front lines. They completely cover the shoulders and front of the body from the neck to the knees. The helmets have each two separate divisions to be attached when they are under a particularly heavy fire.

Kept Under Guard. The great assortment, while on exhibition, will be under constant guard by details of soldiers and sailors. The trench mortars and machine guns will be on display in front of the theater. They show the effects of hard usage.

Official Washington is expected to be present at the showing of the war picture tonight, and also take advantage of the opportunity to view the trophies won by our soldiers in France, a manifest demonstration of their activity in the great war.

The management of the theater is making plans for a brilliant audience tonight, and a prominent soloist has been asked to take part.

BIG W. S. S. DRIVE TO GET UNDER WAY IN D. C. THIS WEEK

The executive committee of the War Savings Campaign in Washington is out to put into effect the wish expressed by President Wilson that every citizen who can will have purchased a war savings stamp or thrift stamps by June 24.

Pledge cards will be placed in the next few days in every household in the city, together with letters explaining how the cards shall be filled out.

Committee workers have been instructed to work without ceasing until it is assured that Director of War Savings D. J. Callahan will have the name and address of every person in the District who has purchased the stamps or who has pledged to buy during the next six or twelve months.

Director Callahan asked today that every one fill out the cards and return them to the central committee as soon as they are left in the homes. The pledge terms have been so arranged that obligation can be made by the signer to pay so much monthly.

The campaign plan includes the project of calling on every household to collect any cards which are not sent in voluntarily, or to inquire for the reason. The Bulletin Booths, which played such a large part in the Liberty Loan and Red Cross campaigns, will be used again next week in this drive. All booths located in district No. 1 will be in charge of Milton E. Allen. The booths will be repainted for the War Savings Stamp drive.

CHINA AIDS RED CROSS.

SHANGHAI, June 3.—Red Cross officers here are arranging to transmit to New York $100,000 in gold as China's contribution to the second drive of the American Red Cross. More than 50,000 associate members were added in the campaign in China.

MINIMUM OF $75 A MONTH URGED FOR WOMEN AT BUREAU

Declaring that women operatives of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing receive less pay than the minimum paid to butchers in the Chicago stockyards, the National Women's Trade Union League has asked that a minimum of $75 a month be paid the bureau workers.

Through Miss Agnes Nestor, a member of the American Labor Mission now in Washington on its return from Europe, the league has asked that a representative of the Washington committee of the league be heard when hearings begin on the sundry civil bill by the House Appropriations Committee, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Miss Nestor yesterday sent a telegram to Secretary McAdoo asking the secretary to take action for an increase of pay for the workers of this bureau of the Treasury Department. She asked him to wire Chairman Sherman, of the Appropriations Committee, requesting a minimum wage of $75 per month for the bureau workers.

Miss Nestor said that women operatives at the bureau are paid from $1.32 to $2.24 per day.

Importation of Wild Animals Now Barred By War Trade Board

Licenses will be granted only when the animals are for breeding purposes.

Y. M. C. A. SEEKS 3,200 MEN FOR WAR DUTY

"More men and women to France," is the appeal from "over there" that officials of the Washington Y. M. C. A. today are planning to meet.

The Washington War Work Council of the organization has been asked to help in the campaign to recruit 3,200 above the draft age and 800 women for work with the American, French, and Italian troops. Plans for another drive for the Y. M. C. A. war fund are also being rounded into shape today. Part of this work will consist in compiling itemized reports of the way in which the $500,000 collected in the last drive was expended.

U. S. PLANS ARMY OF SIX MILLION, G. U. MEN LEARN

America is planning to raise an army of 6,000,000 men as a nucleus of fighting strength and is prepared to go to any extreme to win the war.

This was the message conveyed by Lieut. Col. James S. Eady-Smith, graduate of Georgetown and former prominent Washington lawyer, now attached to the program marshal general's office, who last night addressed the students of Georgetown University at the farewell reception tendered by the faculty to the senior class.

The exercises took place in Ryan Hall on the Hilltop at 7 o'clock. About 700 students and friends of the school attended.

Three-fourths of the senior class were absent, having entered the military service. The Rev. Vincent J. McDonough, S. J., spoke for the school; James C. Shannon, of Connecticut, for the senior class and John Marshall Lancaster, of Tennessee, presided. He is acting president of the class in the absence of T. W. Delaney, who was called to Boston for military training.
